

MADE IN YSTAD

- FILM LOCATIONS

1. Fritidsbadet

The main character in Beyond, Leena finds the strength to overcome her difficult childhood through swimming practice in Ystad's public bath (now closed). The reception inside is also the location for the BBC Wallander series where it acts as the police station.

2. The Museum of Charlotte Berlin.

The Museum of Charlotte Berlin is depicting a middle class home in which a wealthy woman lives in the film Everlasting moments. Maria Larsson's daughter works as a maid for her, and she gets harassed by the woman's husband.

3. Ystad Station Building

The railway station house in Ystad is a main filming location in the second season of the Wallander series. The interiors and the exterior are used as scenery for the police station.

4. Ystad Theatre

Ystad theatre was built between the years 1883-1894. It has been used in many Wallander films.

5. Ystad Studios

Ystad Studios are located in the regiment area in Ystad, 10 minutes by foot from the town center and 6 minutes' walk from the beach.

Among the productions filmed in the Studios there is The Bridge, one of the latest TV series. The Studios were used as interiors of the police station, the place where Saga works.

6. New Town Hall Building

The house was built in 1814 and it is the administrative center for the municipality of Ystad. One of the offices was used in the international co-production, False Witness which was shot in February 2014.

7. Österportstorg

It is the big square in front of the New Town Hall Building/ The New City Hall Building. In April 2014, some scenes from the feature Young Sophie Bell were filmed here.

8. Ystad Saltsjöbad

The beach outside this fabulous hotel was the set for the (Indian) Bollywoodfilm Jia aur Jia in October 2013.

9. Stortorget

This is the main square in Ystad and it was the set of the children's programme Cirkus Imago in May 2014.

10. Villa Frida – Hantverkshemmet

This old building acted as the police station in the last series about Kurt Wallander. The films were shot between May-December in 2012. The first movie, The Troubled Man was based on a novel by Henning Mankell.

11. Gamla Vattentornet

From the top of the old water tower in Ystad you are able to see the whole city. In the film With Every Heartbeat the old water tower is used as Mia and Tim's architecture office.

Martin Rohde (Kim Bodnia) and Saga Norén (Sofia Helin) from the TV-series "The Bridge".
